

EMPLOYEE OF NAVY YARD FACES CHARGE OF SLAYING YOUTH

Witnesses Identify Bernard
Fagan as Man Who Shot
8-Year-Old Jersey Boy.

Bernard Fagan, an electrician in the Brooklyn Navy Yard, was held without bail this morning in the Second Criminal Court in Jersey City charged with the murder of eight-year-old Joseph Crowley of No. 219 Ninth street, Jersey City. Fagan denied that he had shot the boy, but several witnesses identified him as the man.

Young Crowley was shot as he played about a bonfire at Erie and Tenth streets early last evening. John O'Donnell, a twelve-year-old playmate, told the court that Fagan came along the street, stopped to watch the boys an instant, and then, drawing a revolver from his pocket, aimed at Crowley and fired. The boy fell with a bullet in his abdomen and Fagan ran away.

Thomas Guthrie of No. 25 Twelfth street testified that he saw Fagan running and called to him, whereupon Fagan shouted back: "If you come near me I'll put a bullet through you." Patrick Kane of No. 167 Paterson ave. and Thomas Hickey of No. 163 Sixth street were others who testified they saw Fagan shoot and run away. They told Policeman Brennan of the shooting and Brennan went to Fagan's home at No. 67 Grove street. He found the man in bed, and Fagan declared he had returned from work before six o'clock, had dinner and retired immediately. He denied that he knew anything about the shooting.

His revolver was found in the room next to Fagan's bedroom and, according to Lieut. Hoffman, who accompanied Brennan, it was still warm from a recently fired bullet when he picked it up. The police are mystified at the shooting, for Fagan knew none of the boys and, according to several who were with young Crowley, no one addressed Fagan or annoyed him.

Fagan says he is forty-eight years old, though he looks older. A year ago he married the widow of Nell Campbell, one of the most extensive property-holders in Jersey City. Mrs. Fagan is seventy-five years old.

TROLLEYS HELD UP AN HOUR.

Big Auto Truck Breaks Through Broadway Planking.

Trolley traffic in lower Broadway was suspended for an hour this morning when the rear wheels of an automobile truck sank through the planking over an excavation at Dey street and left the truck stranded across both tracks. The truck, driven by Edward Kelly of No. 111 Freeman street, Brooklyn, bore a twelve-ton load of heavy beams for use in the new Equitable Building being erected on the site of the burned structure.

Kelly was guiding the machine south when the accident happened. Traffic Policeman Roberts directed the efforts of laborers who had been laying pipes for a steam heating company, and with block and tackle the truck was raised until its wheels rested on substantial pavement. The truck was uninjured.

ARE YOU WITH BUCKLEYS?

They'll Have a Fine Time Entirely
To-Night.

The only place in town where politics will be strictly barred to-night will be where the Buckleys gather—700 of them and all their wives and children and their friends and their friends—at the Amsterdam Opera House on West Forty-fourth street. The occasion for the meet of the Buckleys is the testimonial entertainment and reception to Big Dinny Buckley, the Mayor of Tenth Avenue and candidate for first President of the Irish Republic when the tight little tale is set free.

There will be figure dancing, Irish dancing and Scotch dancing. No bars are up against cabaret stuff, "but," says Dinny, "it must be on the level or I'll have one of my best hearers at the door to do the job in style."

THIS WOMAN HAD MUCH PAIN WHEN STANDING

Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's
Vegetable Compound Made
Her a Well Woman.

Chippewa Falls, Wis.—"I have always had great confidence in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as I found it very good for organic troubles and recommended it highly. I had displacement, backache and pains when standing on my feet for any length of time, when I began to take the medicine, but I am in fine health now. If I ever have those troubles again I will take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. ED. FERRON, 816 High St., Chippewa Falls, Wisconsin.

Providence, R. I.—"I cannot speak too highly of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it has done wonders for me, and I would not be without it. I had organic displacement and bearing down pains and backache and I was thoroughly run down when I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It helped me and I am in the best of health at present. I work in a factory all day long, besides doing my housework, so you can see what it has done for me. I give you permission to publish my name and I speak of your Vegetable Compound to many of my friends."—Mrs. ABRIL LAWSON, 126 Lippitt St., Providence, R. I.

Official Opening of "The Matthews Thoroughfare"

We have termed it the "Tenth Avenue of Public Service"—since Brooklyn has nine main arteries we have added one more, the tenth. "Service" shall be our theme on this avenue—"Our Thoroughfare"—and we shall at all times endeavor to serve the public, our patrons, with merchandise worthy and reliable at the lowest prices. We do not wish this thronged with the so-called bargain aisles. Matthews' is different—we never use the word bargain, preferring to give you the better values at the most favorable prices. The opening displays of merchandise as featured below are most inviting. There's always something special on "Matthews Thoroughfare."

A Continued Story of Success Is Matthews' Celebration

We use the word "success" advisedly—not from choice but from the sayings dropped here and there by our patrons and visitors alike.

The public—the shopping public—is keen in observation. The slightest change in any public institution is at once noticed, be it in store arrangement, in service or in merchandise.

Take it to yourself—have YOU noticed the new Matthews store; the improved conditions, the better arrangement of display sections, the new merchandise, the new lighting effects, the better service? Surely if you have, so have others—and they're talking about it—it encourages us and points to success.

But we are not content with the progress thus far made, we aim to do still greater things, since "service" is our watchword.
